MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Information Systems Analysis Staff

Bob:

STAT 1. I have read [] memo of 26 November on the matter of RMO's paying their way on records management.

2. Unlike some other reports on other matters I read from time to time, this report impresses me because of its honesty and its practical approach to the problem. The honesty is found in the facts in paragraphs 3 and 4, and the practical approach is found in paragraphs 6 and 7. I think if this approach is kept up, continuing progress will be made in what is admittedly a difficult area and one in which the arousing of enthusiasm is always a challenge.

3. I commend the good efforts.
